THE NEGLECT OF LIFE ASSURANCE.

HERE is no feature of our civilised life that strikes a thoughtful man with more force than the neglect of LIFE ASSURANCE. By payment of a small quarterly subscription any man of good health can secure a very large surto his, family in case of premature death, ye hundreds of families brought up in comfortperhaps in luxury—are left in extreme poverty every year from the bread winner having neglected to assure his life. In the East many a man lives up to his income, knowing well that if death cut him off suddenly, his wife and children would be left almost wholly unprovided for. All this can be prevented by Life Assurance.

LONDON, November 10th. Speaking last night at the Guildhall, Lord Salishury said that the success of the Government's policy in Ireland was assured; that the Sackville-West incident was more electoral than diplomatic; that England has still a duty to perform in Egypt in securing her frontiers; that amidst the growing European armaments England cannot remain unprepared for war, and "that the Government aims not only at ensuring security, but at establishing the sense of security

THE British cruiser Leander, Capt. M. J. Dunlop, returned to day from o cruist.

THE operations of the new Fire Inquiry Ordinance have hardly had any opportunity of being tested yet, but one contingency has suggested itself—that by obliging tenants to leave the burnt premises untouched-sometimes, it may day, burst into flame again this morning, fiscated. about four o'clock. There was not much to hurn, however, and the two Brigades quickly got the outbreak under.

An American contemporary tells as that Belva A. Lockwood, the "conditights" candidate for President of the United States, is 5 feet 8 inches in height, weight 150 pounds, and of the type known as gray blonde. She possesses an indefinable expression of motherliness, earnest good humor and gentle good will, not unmixed with an 'old school grace that is winning rather than remarkable. She does not pretend to style in dress, but there is none of the soiled tawdriness of attire of some gentlewomen who utterly repudiate her views, neither the aggressive masculinity which many ofher own school affect. She never wore a corset, and attributes the remarkable uniformity of her good health to her freedom from it.

A GOOD story, the Straits Times tells us, comes from Pahang, the spot where the Punjom gold mines are supposed to exist. A steamship has just returned from Quantum (and is going back there to-day), and while lying off the shore, the captain, himself a Malay, saw a deer in the water. He managed to get a small boat between it and the shore, and intercept d and killed the animal. Then he took it on board with the natural intention of having a succession of "venison pastries," or their Malay equivalent, Forthwith the Pahang Malays held a palaver on shore, and finally sent to warn the captain, in a friendly way, that he had done a most rash act and that if his ship sailed with the deer on board it would go to the bottom. The captain became frightened, and picked the animal ashore at once; whereupon the villagers cooked and are it. With refined satire they sent the captain a haunch. The Pahangites, like Tony Lumpkin, have clearly "a pretty humour" of their own,

THE row which took place yesterday among the coolie fraternity near Peddar's Wharf, and which was allowed to proceed unmolested and uninterfered with for the space of one hour, is another instance of the apathy generally displayed by the native Police whenever scenes of rowdyism occur on a large scale. Peddar's Wharf is in the vicinity of the busiest quarter of the town how one hundred coolies could have been allowed to engage in a free fight at noon-day in such a locality, until they tired themselves out and dispersed of their own accord, is incomprehensible, unless we believe our Police to be especially instructed not to interfere with street quarrels and scenes of rowdyism. As we cannot swallow such an assumption, we are inclined to imagine that it is to a want of proper instructions issued to the guardians of the law, that scenes like that witnessed yesterday often occur. We would impress upon the Captain Superintendent the necessity of adopting means for the prompt and complete suppression of any street fight among coolies or any other body of natives. If the constables on duty were instructed to give prompt alarm to the nearest Police Station when they see any street row likely to assume undesirable proportions, and a detachment from the Central were marched out to the scene of combat, with as little delay as the telegraph would allow, we think street fighting and acts of rowdyism would effectually be stamped out of the

AND ANOTHER. In this somewhat important suit, which was heard before Acting Chief Justice Russell on 12th September, his Honour delivered the following judgment this morning :-

The plaintiffs, who are Chinese bankers, claim payment of two promissory notes and interest thereon. One note is for $1,000 at the rate of interest of $1.20 per cent. per month. The other is also for $1,000 at the rate of 35 cents per thousand dollars per diem. The defendants in their answer' admitted their indebtedness on the foot of the notes, but claimed that a partnership existed between themselves and plaintiffs accommodating itself to the gradual expansion | in reference to certain salt transactions and the of the colony by establishing a regular Peak purchase and resale of certain steam-launches, delivery. Mr. Francis opposed the application. There had been absolutely no reason shown for such a course, and he did not suppose that the Court would cast such a slur on the defendants without some reason. Such applications were usually made on affidavit, or on something that had arisen during the trial, but he submitted that there was nothing before the Court so far to justify his lordship in granting it at present. The Attorney General said that he could

HOTEL COMPANY. This matter comes before the Full Court by way of appeal from an order made by me in Chambers on the 18th October, refusing the plaintiffs leave to withdraw from the suit and to bring a fresh action for the same matter. The application was made under a provision in the Code; sec 66, which is as follows:-- "If the plaintiff at any time before final judgment satisfy this Court that there are sufficient grounds for permitting him to withdraw from the suit with liberty to bring a fresh suit for the same matter, it shall be competent to the Court to grant such permission in such terms as to costs or otherwise as it may deem proper. If the plaintiff withdraw from the suit without such permission he shall be precluded from bringing a fresh suit for the same matter." This is taken from the Indian civil code and is exactly the same as Section 97 of Art. XIII of 1859. An affidavit sworn to by Mr. Caldwell was the only one filed in support of the applications, which he himself made, and is to the following effect:-I. That he had the conduct of this case for the plaintiffs.

2. That by an agreement of 30th March, 1885, the plaintiffs and defendants agreed to submit all matters in difference to Mr. McEwen and Mr. MacClymont and that the said matters were referred to them, and they made their award on

Ist June, 1885. * 3. By the said award the arbitrators awarded and adjudged (inter alia) that Messrs. Danb and Leigh should produce and deliver to th Hongkong Hotel Co. detailed invoices duly dis charged by the respective suppliers of the goods ennumerated in the statement, and receipts for piyments of freight, and shipping charges thereon, and immediately on such production and delivery the said Hongkong Hotel Co should forthwith pay to the said Messrs. Danb and Leigh such sum, not exceeding $14,972.8 as might be shown by the said discharge invoices and receipts to have been paid for the said goods and for the freight and shipping charges thereon, 4. In pursuance of the said award certain vouchers for payment of the said sum $14 972.83 -- were obtained and were presented t the defendant who refused to pay to the plaintiffs the said amount or any part thereof and thereupon the suit was commenced.

5. I am now advised by Counsel that the said vouchers so presented to the defendants as in the last paragraph mentioned are not sufficient to sustain this suit and that the plaintiffs cannot valely proceed in action to recover the said amount without better vouchers.

6 I am informed and verily believe that the plaintiffs have a good cause of action against the defendants, &c. And that good and sufficient vouchers are procurable and will be procured without loss of time.

But with reference I'll make the contract when you go to the And that since then the plaintiffs had not the Acting Puisne Judge feels called upon taken steps in the suit and that the defendant to make the following comments :- When pending. Mr. Leigh also made an affidavit on distress came before the Court, the Court was the 6th September, that the money was owingand that the Company mainly relied for their defence on the fact that certain vouchers were not signed by the suppliers of the goods. He about four months before and that he expressed visions of the Code contained in sections 43 and um to send the vouchers without delay, and that on the 31st August he had received , a telegram from Mr. Dinby that he "intends to send vouchers." He said also that he expected to get the vouchers by the end of October. On these representations the time was extended to 18th Oct. to file petition and it was understood that another telegram would be sent; however, no step was taken till the day the order expired, and as I was sitting in Criminal Sessions I could not see the solicitors to hear the application till late in the day. However, on hearing the arguments on the 18th October I was of opinion the "no" sufficient grounds," nor indeed any grounds, were shewn for permitting the plaintiffs to withdraw and bring a fresh suit. The only substantial ground was that if this was not done the suit stood dismissed and that it was possible they could not fetch another for the same matter. That seemed to be their own negligence, or because for some reason or other they did not want to proceed. It was not lost sight of that the Hotel Co. had got value, but the plaintiffs cannot apparently be induced to shew what is owing to them. If the petition were not filed on the 18th the suit was dead; but if good cause were shewn the time for filing would have been extended. I but it was not asked to be extended, and indeed no reason was given, only that there were no vouchers. It was admitted that both Mr. Leigh and Mr. Danby had been in England, since the to its directions as to taking the evidence by suit was commenced, and it is clearly unjust that affidavit. However, on Mr. Mossop's declaring. a law-suit should keep hanging over people's he had never heard the Court give such direcheads. It is again argued for the plaintiffs in tions and that he had no recollection of them he this appeal, that possibly a great injustice may be was allowed, on filing personal affidavit exdone—as they may not be able to fetch a fresh plaining his mistake, to supply by affidavit suit. At the close of Chan Sut Sang's case, which was chiefly based on alleged lease, Mr. Mossop on behalf of Leung I for the first time (although he had already at the request of the Court stated the line of his defence) put forward, as an answer to Chan. Sut Sang's claim that his lease was void on the ground (other grounds were also urged) that Chan Sut Sang's lease not being registered was void as against his client's registered title, The Court at once pointed out that this defence was not set up by the affidavits filed on behalf of Leung I, and thereupon Mr. Mossop tendered his documentary title in evidence and proposed to call the Land Officer or his deputy to prove its registration. The Court again pointed out that this was contrary unwittingly, be misleading and probably has misled the learned counsel, who appears in support of the application. The order of the Court below will therefore stand, and the application must be refused. "

But an author must be supposed to be consistent with himself and the Legislature may be treated like an author, says the learned writer referred to above. To impute | the letter, and sentenced to two years' imprisonrepugnancy is to impute ignorance or carelesness of expression or confusion of thought, and not only therefore is "repeal by implication not favoured, but any construction involving it is to be rejected in favour of any other which the language will rationally bear," Maxwell, p. 134. "Any right of common" in an act of Parliament has been cut down to mean rights appurtenant because of other words in another part of the same statute, and in the Dower Act 3 and 4, 'land,' although used in the most general sense, wascut down so as not to include copyhold owing to the context. The practice has existed here, for the last five years at all events of dealing with administration matters in Chambers under 15 and 16 Vic. When this matter was before me in Chambers, I confess that I leaned to the opinion that sec. was fatal to the practice. The discussion that has now taken place, however, satisfies me that in using the term suit in section IX, the legislature did not intend to include administrative proceedings by way of Summons. Mr. Justice Leach said :-As this appeal affects the practice of the Court for the last five or six years I think it right to deliver a separate judgment, although the result of it is the same as that of the Chief Justice. Under the old practice in the High Court of Chancery in England prior to the Judicature Acts, and before the passing of the Chancery Procedure Act 18,2 (1: & 16, V. c. 86 causes or suits were commenced by bill or information. In 1842 the last mentioned Act came into operation, and by s. 45 proceedings for the administration of the personal state of deceased per ons were for the first time allowed on originating summons in the Chambers of the Master of the Rolls and Vice-Chancellors. These proceedings have always been entitled 'In the matter of the Estate of A.B., deceased-C. D. plaintiff and E. F. defendant i' and in all decrees and orders made therein the proceedings were referred to as a matter and cause as distinguished from a f cause ' alone. ' Cause ' and ' suit ' seem to have been synonymous terms, see Seton on Decrees, 3rd Edition, p. 91 notes, p. 115 form 1 p. 116 notes. By Ord. No. 7 of 1856 Section 45 of the Act of 15 and 16 Vic c. 86 is with other sections in Hongkone. For the Respondent it was argued in older times. that the Hongkong Code of Civil Procedure has the effect of repealing it by implication, taken to dispel it. - Straits Times. Sect. 4 of the Code enacts amongst other things that except so far as may be therein specially provided, Acts or parts of acts of the Imperial Parliament relating to procedure are to be thenceforth suspended, but it goes on to except matters for which no special provision is made in which Case they are preserved so far as they do 'not con-Il ct or are not inconsistent with the Code and can be made auxillary thereto. It is clear that but for the provise in the latter part of the section, a. 45 of 15 and 16 Vic. c. 86 would be gone-and it is also clear, no special provision as to the administration: of deceased persons estates having been made in the Code, that but for the words small not conflict or be inconsistent with the administration of estates under s. 45 of 16 and 16 Vic. c. 86 would be preserved. . But it is contended that this provision in 15 and 16, Vic. c. 86 does conflict and is inconsistent with s. o of the Code which enacts that subject to the provisions hereinafler contained as to the turn on the point what do the words. Il suits' include. Now it is obvious that placeedings of this kind on summons are convenient expeditious, and cheap. The Legislature lways seeks to effect that end in litigation, and it would seem that if section o has the effect of d ing away with the procedure it is rather the recident of verbinge than intention. In Hongking prior to 1873 when the Code came into operation the Act of 15 and 16 Vic. c. 86 s. 45 was in force, and as I understand the procedure and practice of the Court was rigulated by by bill and information must have been well known, and it must be assumed that the distinction between a 'cause' or 'suit' and a 'matter cause' or a 'matter and suit' were recognised and therefore present to the Legisand it appears to me that if the Legislature summons under 15 and 16 Vic. c, 86, it would included matters and suits' or at any rate would have enacted that fall suits, and other proceed-

EXTRAORDINARY SCARE IN SINGAPORE:

THE COOLIES BELIEVE THAT A PRICE IS SET ON THEIR HEADS.

There exists at present among the Chinese coolies in Singapore a widespread belief that in the outskirts of the town there prevails a system of cutting off the heads of unwary waylarers. The purpose for which such atrocities are believed to be committed is unknown, nor is it known how the bodies are disposed of, but on one point there is a fixed opinion—that the price given by some authority is $50 per head. The district about Scrangoon Road is specially obnexious to finricksha coolies, who are firm believers in the tales which have been freely circulated. Indeed one of our staff, in order to test the accuracy of the above statements, asked six coolies in succession to carry him to that district, and in each case the men refuse, one remarking, when offered more than three times the fare," "I would not go there for $50." That the rumour is not confined to one class is certain, and that it should meet with such ready acceptance not only by coolies but by many who have received a European education, and who have a close intercourse with English. men, and who prove themselves as cute men of business as can be found anywhere, offers a somewhat striking comment on our boastful representations of the results of our govern-

WHAT THE HEADS ARE WANTED FOR:-From another source we learn that the Chinese coolies believe that their heads are wanted by the department of public works for the purpose of making sure the success of bridges now under construction. The present rumour is on the same lines as one which circulated in India a few months ago when all over a wide district mothers lived in perpetual fear that their children would be stolen extended to the Colony, and although repealed by the Government to be walled up alive in the in England by the Statute Law Revision Act | f undations of a great bridge being built. The 1881, it has not hitherto been expressly repealed same superstition indeed was current in Europe

TAKE NOTICE that Mr. CHAN CHAU TAM left my employment on the grat day of August last and is now in no way connected with my Firm or Business and all authority either to sell or purchase or for any other thing has been withdrawn from him and further I beg to inform the public that the labels on Firecrackers manufactured or sold by me will bear my old Hong Name of MAEN SHING and without this name attached none will be genuine and any brands without the name "MAEN SHING" or with an additional character will be a fraud and any person found guilty of imitation will be prosecuted and punished according Dated this 20th day of November, 1888.

MAEN SHING.

NOTICE.

Silk and Fire Crackers

THE Undersigned respectfully inform the Foreign Merchants in Canton that for the past twenty years they have carried on business in silk piece-goods in Sai-Hing Street, Canton, under the chop signification of "TSUN SHING," and venture to believe that the superior quality of their goods have given universal satisfaction to their customers. In order to avoid possible imposition they have considered it indispensable to prefix to their designation the surname of the head of the firm, "CHAN" and henceforth the Firm's signification, in the silk branch, will be known as "CHAN TSUN SHING." Further, in respect of the Fire Cracker branch, which hitherto has been carried on under the title of "MAEN SHING," under which we have acted as sole dealers in Canton for many years and during this period our chop, by reason of the superior quality of the ingredients we employ as well as the first class character of our manufacture, has maintained its pre-eminent position in the markets of the United States of America; but lately numerous fraudulent imitations of our goods have been attempted, which has necessitated, in the interests of the public, our establishing a new Fire Cracker brand that will hereafter be known as the "CONSTITUTION" Cracker. It will be recognised by our old established mark underneath, viz., No. 1 Golden Dragon chop and our new prefixed title "CHAN MAEN SHING" at the bottom of the label of our
